

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160 on the basis that having information available in more places is good for the well being of the people, and we do not need more laws, especially for a small group of businesses to line their pockets.

Sincerely, William P. Norden